For Life's Cherished Moments

Weddings are momentous occasions on any scale. The Landings Yacht, Golf and Tennis Club is the perfect venue for ceremonies and celebrations. Our experienced and professional staff is available to make sure that every detail pleases even the most discerning bride and groom.

Picnic Pointe, a destination along the river, provides a spectacular backdrop for an unforgettable outdoor wedding, whether you're planning a grand event or a small, private ceremony. Here, breathtaking sunsets offer an ever-changing kaleidoscope of color for a romantic ceremony or outdoor reception.

The Helm Club offers more choices for that special day—from formal to casual, indoor and alfresco. Inside, the Banquet Hall is set in traditional fashion with handsome surroundings and furnishings, or can be transformed into any bride's dream venue. This spacious area, which includes the Main Deck and Dining Room, has a seating capacity up to 250 guests, a large dance floor, baby grand player piano and audio-visual equipment, provides flexibility limited only by the imagination.

Related functions leading up to the big day can all be accommodated at The Landings, as well. The Garden Room, which offers seating for up to 50 guests, and the Private Dining Room, with seating for up to 30, are suitable for the rehearsal dinner and bridal showers.

Celebrations

Planning a successful celebration begins with the location. Whether you're celebrating a milestone birthday, a wedding anniversary or reuniting with a group of friends, The Landings Yacht, Golf and Tennis Club has the space to meet your needs. We will help you plan your event, and provide the expertise to anticipate every detail. The choices are endless. From location and setting to culinary delights, our staff will work to ensure quality and value.

Social gatherings can be accommodated in a variety of spaces and settings. The Captain's Bridge offers comfortable surroundings for private dinner parties or social soirees. The inviting Compass Rose Tavern is the ideal place for a cocktail party or reception with plenty of dancing room on the hardwood floors.

Business Occasions

At The Landings, you will find the ideal site for your business meeting needs. For large groups, the Main Deck can be set up theatre style or banquet style and divided into break-out areas, depending on the function. The Purser's Quarters provides formal, private space for high-level board meetings, with seating for 20. Between meetings, or after business is completed, join your group in the Compass Rose Tavern to toast the day's success. With complete banquet facilities, audio/visual and WiFi services, you will find that when it comes to meeting your needs, our professional staff is all about business and providing service.

Connections

When you require the services of supporting businesses, The Landings has established connections with some of the area's most experienced professionals. From creative florists and photographers, to transportation specialists and party rental supplies, our staff will help you find the professionals and items to make your event unforgettable.

Let us help you ensure your event is as special and memorable as possible. Call us today at (239) 482-3211 for a private appointment to discuss your event.
